

1 Delegate Henderson's answer to previous questions, he
2 intended by his amendment to allow for the General Assembly
3 to provide for juries of not more than six but required
4 that such verdict be unanimous.

5 If so provided by the General Assembly it
6 could take the place of the requirement of a jury of 12;
7 is that correct?

8 DELEGATE HENDERSON: That is correct.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Marion.

10 DELEGATE MARION: If the General Assembly
11 were to provide for a six-man jury in the district 12 court, would it be your intention by this amendment to 13 limit the General Assembly in either way from either 14 allowing or denying a subsequent trial or an appeal with 15 a trial de novo before a jury of 12 in the superior 16 court?

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Henderson.

18 DELEGATE HENDERSON: No, I think the legislature
19 would be perfectly free to allow that as they have in the 20 past, if they desire to do so, but I don't think it 21 would be necessary that they provide for a jury trial at
